PIP AND THE GIANT BUTTERFLY

IDEA

A young cute character name PIP yearn to catch butterflies who was so obsessed in studying them for years but discovers the beauty of setting them free when he encounters a giant butterfly who he has read in his books teaches that "The true joy lies in letting it go".

STORY

In the heart of a forest lived a cute little creature named PIP, who always wished to catch the butterflies since when his parents introduced him to the beautiful little butterflies and their protector the Giant Butterfly in his childhood stories. Hence he filled his walls with the pictures, drawing butterflies, and reading a lot of books. One fine day PIP moves into the Giant forest in search of the butterflies that he has been searching for a long time. He moved to the center of the forest and searched for the yellow flowers where the butterflies mostly hide. PIP claps his hands in front of the flowers and it makes the butterflies come out from the flowers and fly around PIP. PIP followed one of them into the woods. He jumps higher into the air catches one of the butterflies and puts it into his bottle. All of a sudden The GIANT BUTTERFLY came to rescue the one who was captured by PIP. PIP surprisingly looks at the GIANT BUTTERFLY as it was from the books and the stories. He tries to approach the butterfly but it denies PIP to touch him. The GIANT BUTTERFLY asks PIP to release the one whom he has captured in the PIP bottle. Due to the GIANT BUTTERFLY'S request, PIP happily leaves the butterfly at its home. Seeing this the butterflies fly around the GIANT BUTTERFLY and PIP in happiness. Before flying higher in to the sky and leaving PIP the GIANT BUTTERFLY tells PIP that "The true joy lies in letting it go". Hearing this the PIP with a small smile walks safely to his home.
